EARTHWORM JIM

The Good Guys!

As Seen in the Insane Animated Universal Cartoon Studios TV Show!

Earthworm Jim™ Figure Assortment

Earthworm Jim™ (EWJ) has taken the world by storm, and now he's here in full three-dimensional action figure form! He's stylish, he's cool, he's armed with a really BIG gun! And he's brought along some of his friends and friends as seen in the Universal Cartoon show and video games. That's right biped boy, there's a whole bunch of wacked-out characters just waiting to run loose. The demented Psychrow—one bad attitude bird with a hankering for worm snacks. And Professor Monkey-for-a-Head—this P.D. prehensile has a lot on his mind—like how to destroy Earthworm Jim. But don't ding your dirt did because Jim's got some friendly friends to help in his overworlding battle. Princess Puggy for one—the sweetest puppy to ever turn into a stark, raving mad dog. Princess What's-Her-Name, a bug so beautiful she drives Jim to heroism. Plus more insane friends and foes too numerous to mention.

And if all that doesn't get your worm wagglin', then get a load of these extras! Each package comes with a "JimVision" Decoder—simply look through the colored lens and learn Jim's secrets on EWJ Packaging, video games and other cool intergalactic stuff. All characters come with a wacky and definitely-not-same sidekick; it's like getting two figures for the price of one! There's a spring-loaded surprise with every figure! And we can't stress this enough: the weapons are really B-I-G; we mean huge, massive and unbelievably large!

So get groovy and join the hippest hero to ever put on a super suit and travel the universe to save a princess. And remember, the early bird gets blasted! POW!

EWJ's Crow Poundin' Worm Tossin'!

With a full load of twelve automatically feeding Worm Discs, EWJ never has to worry about running out—even if Pyscrow shows up. And since sharing is one of the seventy-five principles of Earthworm Jim's philosophy, he's designed the Worm Thrower to hold up to three figures, so everybody can get in on the action. Groovy!

EARTHWORM JIM

Worm Thrower™

EWJ's Crow Poundin' Worm Tossin'!

The battery-powered Worm Thrower is the latest in invertebrate technology—and Earthworm Jim's coolest new accessory. EWJ just loves driving around serving freshly-pounded Worm discs to any villain who dares to show his face. With a push of a button, EWJ sends a Worm Disc soaring into the air—as it floats in a momentary field of suspended gravity, one can almost appreciate its simplistic beauty before it slams into some nasty nemesis. With a full load of twelve automatically feeding Worm Discs, EWJ never has to worry about running out—even if Pyscrow shows up. And since sharing is one of the seventy-five principles of Earthworm Jim's philosophy, he's designed the Worm Thrower to hold up to three figures, so everybody can get in on the action. Groovy!
